This Sunday's Worship Service at Trinity

Join Trinity's Worship Service of prayer and music via live stream this Sunday, November 22nd, at 10 a.m. from the sanctuary of St. James Church. To follow along with the service and join in the singing of the hymns you can download the Worship Guide. Starting at 11 a.m. you can join with others during a time of virtual coffee hour.

Thanksgiving Eve Holy Eucharist Will Be Available on trinityfishkill.org

This year's service of gratitude for God's presence and blessing in our lives will be available on our website next Thursday, November 25th, by 2 p.m. You will be able to participate in it at that evening or at another time of your choosing during the Thanksgiving weekend.

Thanks for Supporting our Thanksgiving Outreach Project

This year we received $425 in donations from members of Trinity to be used by families living at Grace Smith House to purchase food for their Thanksgiving meals. We also gave them a check for $475 which was part of our 2020 Outreach budget.

Virtual Sunday School

It is a blessing indeed, for us who serve all those who joined us for our monthly Sunday School presentation at 6:30 p.m. on November 8th. We will continue once a month on a Sunday evening until it is safe to gather in person.

You can join the GoToMeeting we have set up. Contact Dave Bishop, info@trinityfishkill.org, or Pam Bunker to get the links needed to join.

Midweek Holy Eucharist Available

Next week's availability will be on Tuesday, November 24th, between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. While drop-ins are okay, calling the church in advance at 845-896-9884 to say you are coming is helpful.

Hymn Sing 6 Available Now

244th Episcopal Diocese Convention Report

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the 244th Diocesan Convention was conducted online via Zoom on Saturday, November 7, with the exception that the bishops and other essential participants were at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, appropriately distanced from one another.

Video of November 7, including the Bishops' addresses, will be posted as soon as available at www.diocesenyn.org/244th-diocesan-convention-report/.

Episcopal Relief and Development

With any luck, you've received your Gifts for Life Christmas catalog in the mail by now!

Inside, you'll find each item has something very special to offer — different ways you can sow seeds of resilience for people worldwide.

For example, when you Nurture & Nourish the Earliest Learners, you're helping children thrive within those pivotal first 1,000 days of life.

Quiet Time in the Sanctuary

244th DIOCESAN CONVENTION
THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF NEW YORK

Behold, I am making all things new' (Revelation 21:5)

If you want to spend some time alone in the Sanctuary please contact Marilyn Sullivan or Jan Humbert and they will be happy to open the door and clean the space after your visit.

Trinity Responding

Here are some helpful ways we are offering support during these trying times:

- Wayne Bunker has offered his assistance with emergency repairs inside the home. To describe your need and see if he can help you can contact him at plumberfourthg@gmail.com.
- Chris Huston has offered her assistance for grocery and needed supply shopping and delivery. You can contact her at chris@chrisehuston.com.
- Pam Bunker continues to send lessons and activities from the weekly scriptures to our parents to share and do with their children at home. Thank you, Pam, for your faithfulness.
- Our food pantry continues to serve all comers three times a month. Please be generous in shopping for the pantry when you make your own grocery trip. You will find a list of most needed items in the link beside the announcement "Trinity Feeds Our Neighbors" in your e-news. Please contact Dave at info@trinityfishkill.org to arrange for a time to bring them to the pantry.
- Dutchess County has been very proactive in making social services available to residents in need. The best resource for learning about available assistance, volunteer opportunities or to donate is Dutchess Responds.
- Fr. Garrett along with other church members are continually available to hold you, your family members, friends, and others known to you in prayer. Please call Fr. Garrett at (914-552-4810) or e-mail him at garrett@trinityfishkill.org with a request for prayer for any reason.

Feeding Our Neighbors

Special thanks to Nancy Drennan for donating a Turkey. We have been serving many folks in need during our food pantry hours. We are open on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month from 6 to 8 p.m., and on the fourth Saturday each month from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

We ask those not involved yet to please consider helping by signing up with our regular helpers at:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0f4ca8a928a2f58-trinity>

You can also email or call Chris Huston (chris@chrisehuston.com) or 845-227-2876) and she will assist you in signing up.

Trinity Book Club

If you would like to join us, on December 2nd, we are continuing our meetings with GoToMeeting the first Wednesday of each month. Our selection this month is "The Brutal Telling" by Louise Penney. Join us in our Book Club Virtual Room, on December 2nd, for an insightful discussion. All are welcome.

Services from the NY Diocese and the National Cathedral

You can draw closer to God by participating in either Morning or Evening Prayer each weekday from the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C., or joining services from churches in the various parishes in the Diocese of New York. Use the links in the header above to enjoy these worship opportunities.
